ORDER:

In his proceedings first read above, the Transport Commissioner, Andhra Pradesh, Hyderabad has imposed the Punishment of Stoppage of Withholding of One Annual Grade Increment with Cumulative Effect against Sri K.Satyanarayana Prasad, Asst.Motor Vehicles Inspector on the allegation that, while he was working as Supervisor in RTA Office, West Zone, Hyderabad during the period between 09.05.1993 to 22.03.2007, he was committed grave misconduct in as much as, an amount of Rs.130/- was found short in the Government Cash and thus failed to maintain absolute integrity in violation of APCS(Conduct) Rules, 1964.

2. Against the said Punishment, Sri K. Satyanarayana Prasad, Asst. Motor Vehicles Inspector, in the reference second read above, has filed appeal Petition, before the Government stating that, during the rush of work, he collected the fee Rs.230/- instead of Rs.360/- from the person, Sri P.Masthan for issuing of fitness certificate and subsequently, on noticing the same, he collected the amount Rs.130/- from the applicant and accounted. Thus, There is no loss to Government. Therefore, he has requested the Government, to set aside the punishment and to drop further action against him.

3. Government, after carefully examining the matter, have observed that, in the Appeal Petition, the individual has stated that, shortage of collection of fees of Rs.230/-, as against the issued receipt of Rs.360/- i.e., shortage of Rs.130/- is noticed and recovered the same on the same date from the concerned i.e., Sri P. Masthan, Owner of the Vehicle No. AP 13W 6993, and that the mistake is due to rush of work, but not intentional, appears to be very reasonable, especially, during the rush of work, as recorded in the Inquiry Report and hence, his appeal merits consideration and decide to allow his Appeal Petition and to set aside the original punishment imposed upon him by the Transport Commissioner i.e., Stoppage of One (1) Annual Grade increment with cumulative effect, with a warning to be more careful in future.

4. Accordingly, Government hereby allow the Appeal Petition of Sri K.Satyanarayana Prasad, Asst.Motor Vehicle Inspector duly setting
